CONTINUING BUSINESS

Park Issues: Matt Beeman

- Parks Department is in maintenance mode right now with ongoing field maintenance a priority. All are busy preparing our equipment and facilities for spring operation.
- Mowing contract are set to begin toward the end of April (weather permitting).
- Parks are experiencing an increase in materials costs across the board and keeping an eye on current and future project budgeting considering renewed pricing constraints imposed thereby
- Facilities are currently still winterized and it is anticipated that bathrooms will be opened as soon as the risk of frost has passed – around end of April or early May
- Routine maintenance of parks, facilities, and trails were discussed in light of new land acquisition
- Corbett's Glen North Trail repair/maintenance is a priority action item for crews as soon as it's dry enough to do work

Recreation Programs: Rebecca Cotter

- Concert Sponsorship for our summer concert series has been solidified – We are grateful to Wegmans, as well as to our other returning sponsors. We will continue to diversify our performance groups and concert scheduling is underway with that goal in mind
- Recreation Department Summer Camp hiring was discussed with attendant concerns regarding recruitment of quality staff. We remain hopeful that newly anticipated partnerships with local staffing firms will benefit the Town with a plethora of diverse, quality recruits
- Department is interviewing for a Part Time Recreation Assistant for the Brighton Seniors
- Recreation will be hiring Full Time Recreation Leader
- Evaluation of Brookside Space with respect to programming needs is ongoing
- Accessibility improvements for the Community Garden entrance were discussed
- Clean Sweep registration set up is complete and ready to open upon final confirmation
- Feasibility Study Report from our consultants, SWBR, is under review internally for updates and corrections, in anticipation of presentation of a draft to the full board and community

Winter Farmers' Market Update

- Budget discussions are underway for next phase, with ongoing supply chain and fossil fuel pricing challenges resulting in estimates that are coming in higher than expected
- Town staff have begun site work to prepare for grading, roadway and parking lot development

Inclusion, Diversity and Equity Advisory Board Update

- Met on Thursday, March 10th to finalize edits to the Draft IDEA Plan and website
