GUESTS

Councilmember Robin Wilt
Councilmember Christine Corrado
Merideth Drager
Lenora Robin(sp)
Seth Weinstein
Martina Ashbury

COMMUNICATIONS:

OPEN FORUM:

Ms. Drager first addressed the committee about concerns and the Town of Brighton should be setting safety standards for protest(s) around the twelve corners intersections. Ms. Robin (sp) added that her son shared some similar personal safety concerns while at school and inquired about a plan for safety while observing protest signage within the twelve corners intersections. Mr. Weinstein echoed these concerns and emphasized that there should be some basic framework with protest and demonstrations moving forward.

Supervisor Moehle responded that these concerns raised and will be reviewing these with the Town Attorney, Police Chief and will report back on their findings or recommendations, if any.

Ms. Ashbury addressed the committee about the lack of street lighting along Clinton Avenue South @ Highland Avenue intersection. Clinton Avenue South is a County of Monroe DOT Road and Commissioner Sprague will begin a discussion with them about potential lighting improvements.
