

Brighton Community Garden Mission Statement

The Town of Brighton has established a community garden at Buckland Park to foster sustainability by providing residents of the community with an opportunity to grow their own organic, local food. The community garden serves to connect the community to the Town's historical agricultural past, improve access to healthy local foods, and provide educational outreach to the community on sustainable gardening practices.